Test test test test test test

Test test test test test test

Test test test test test test

Test test test test test test

Test test test test test test

Test test test test test test

This demo shows how to work with RVF and RTF files containing external images, like this one:
This image is actually stored in the Images subdirectory (as well as other images that you can paste here).
Only one problem is not covered - deleting pictures that are not used by any RVF file.

This is the second reference to the same image:

1   test test test